Anxious thoughts and ideas pass through the cheerleaders' minds.

Sophomores gaze enviously at the seniors.

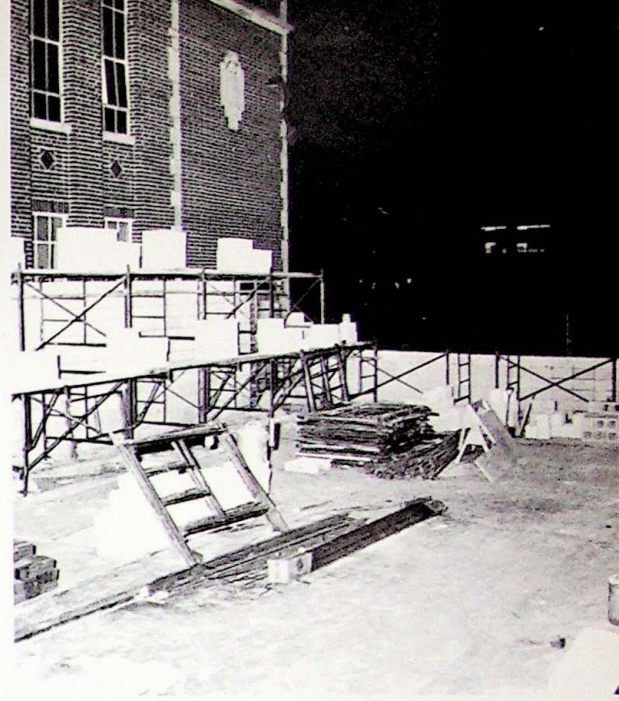

Determination is a requirement for victory.

Daydreaming was an escape from reality.

Confronted by surprise.

New additions kindled greater pride in M.H.S.

Emotions ... People, Places, Personalities

Lab experiments required intense concentration.

Many lasting friendships evolve from school acquaintances.

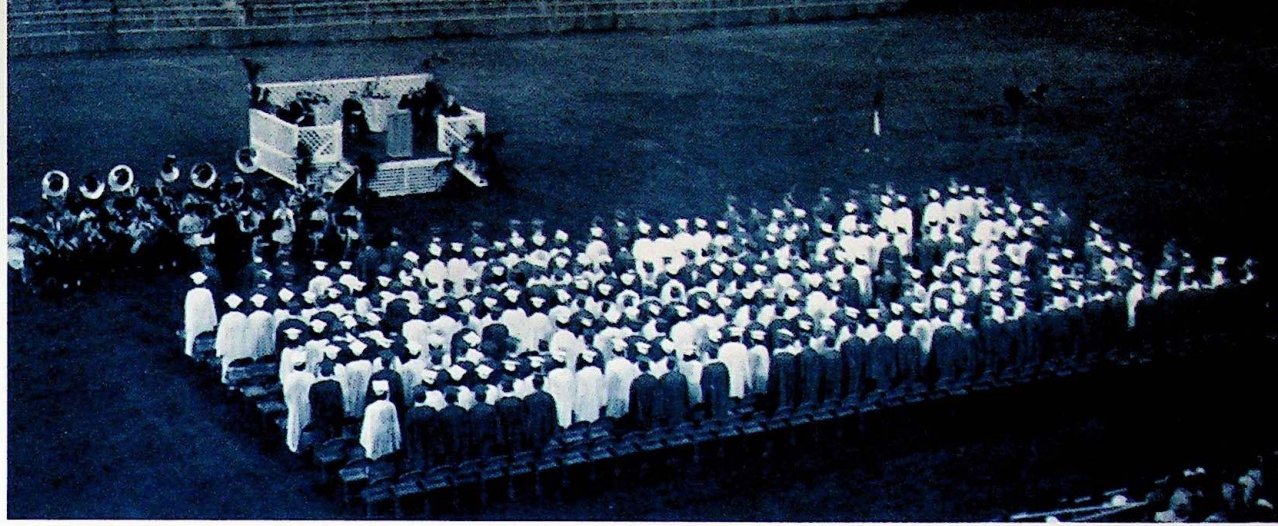

Spirit and hope for victory radiate from the majorette's face.

A rare moment of tranquillity.

An informal atmosphere prevails the day before school begins.

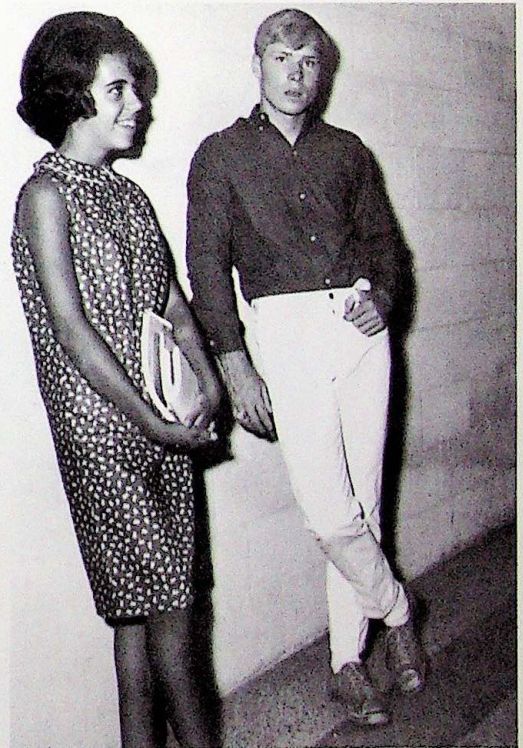

United we stand for the final time.

The band generates Tyger enthusiasm.

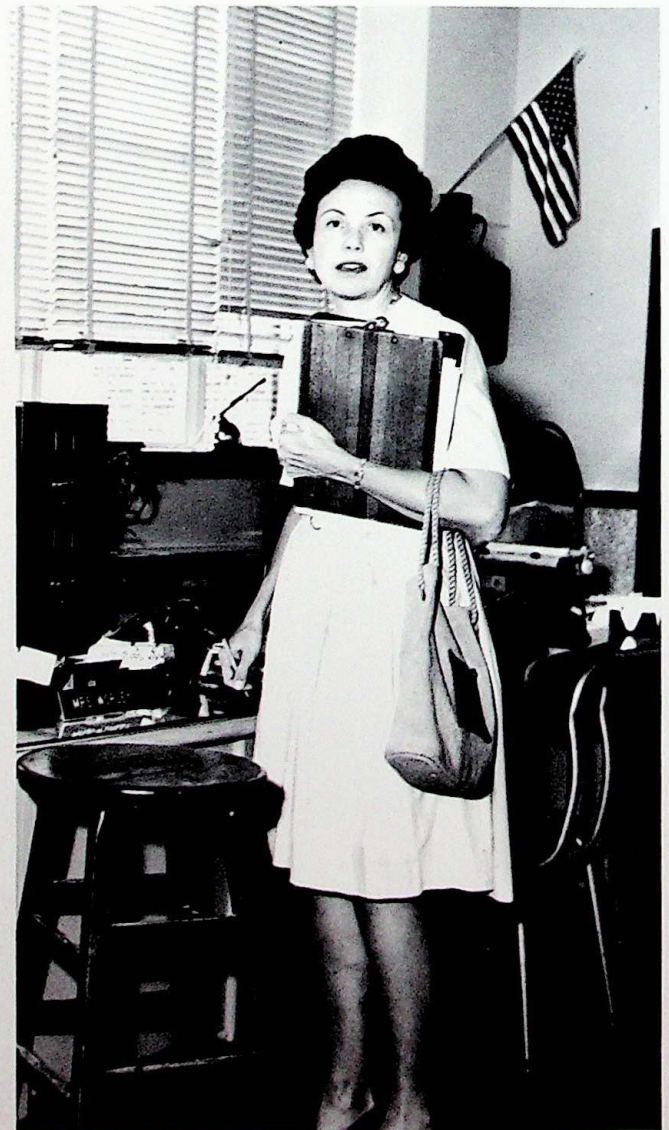

Sophomores reveal a carefree attitude for the first few days.

A referee's decision is received with diverse attitudes.

Exhaustion accompanies a difficult day.

Cares and worries are forgotten while sharing an amusing incident.

Fear grips newcomers.

Teamwork is applied in the classroom as well as on the field.

and friend."

- Pope

To Mrs. Jessie Brown, who has been our guide, philosopher, and friend, we proudly dedicate the 1966 Manhigan.

A native Ohioan, she was valedictorian of her graduating class. Mrs. Brown attended Toledo University, Ashland College, and Miami University, where she earned her A. B. degree. Although at the present Mrs. Brown is teaching only plane and solid geometry, she has majors in mathematics and science and minors in English and social studies. She taught mathematics at John Simpson Junior High for nine years before coming to Mansfield Senior High in 1959.

For the past three years, Mrs. Brown has given unselfishly many hours of her time as advisor of the Class of 1966. Much of her time and effort have been spent on proms, homecoming, Varsity Varieties, Senior Class Plays, and graduation.

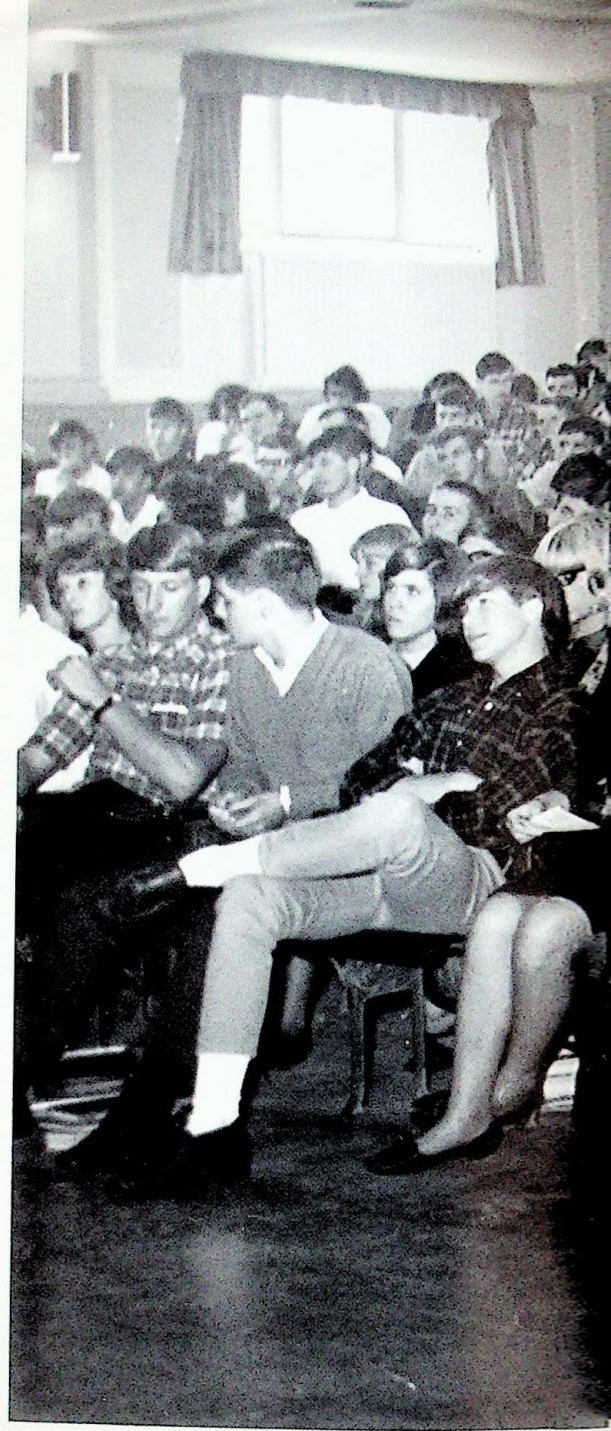

On all who have made her acquaintance, Mrs. Brown has left an indelible impression of outstanding teaching, as well as of a fine and friendly person.

CLASS OF 1966

SENIOR CLASS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Dave Schroeder
President

The Class of 1966 began, of course, as lowly sophomores. The usual jokes were played on them, but they emerged as an up and coming class. The first slate of officers were President Dave Schroeder, Vice-President Junior Parr, Secretary Jeanette Peck, and Treasurer Kathy Wiegand. A candy sale drive that was tremendously successful canceled the need for further money-making projects. A colorful Carousel complete with natural scenery and sideshow booths, provided magic for the Sophomore Prom.

Now polished off and emerging as juniors, the class took over Homecoming ceremonies. Queen Betsy Schlegel and her court were Portraits of Majesty. Revenue came primarily from sponsoring dances. Dave Schroeder, president; Junior Parr, vice-president; Jeanette Peck, secretary; and Bruce Olson, treasurer, supervised the class. Juniors who attended Executive Committee meetings and were committee members of junior class projects received points for their efforts, and pins were distributed to outstanding contributors. Proceeds from a benefit assembly went to aid injured junior Cheryl Horning. Alice's Wonderland enchanted a fairy-tale Junior Prom.

The importance and responsibility of finally becoming seniors arrived for 445 classmates. Seniors took over the leadership in clubs, sports, school politics, and student government. Vice-President Mark Hoy, Secretary Jeanette Peck, and Treasurer Bruce Olson staffed executive positions, and President Dave Schroeder was elected for the third time. For every senior there was an activity to display his particular ability. Varsity Varieties, which hosted a couple from outer space, exhibited the talents of Senior High students. Look Through Any Window was the visitors' method of viewing life in Mansfield. Harvey was the senior class' dramatic offering. The end approached as Class Day recognition, the Senior Prom, and Baccalaureate came and went. The Class of 1966 united for the last time on June 10. Commencement exercises were met with mixed emotions of relief from school routine and sadness at parting from old friends. The Class of '66 took its place in the history of Mansfield Senior High and looked to the future.

CLASS OF 1967

With a whirlwind of activities, the Class of '67 swept into the junior year at Mansfield Senior High School. Homecoming, with its many festivities, was the first project of the year. Many committees were formed to carry out the colorful theme, "Deep Purple." Class elections were held in October and the newly elected officers immediately began to plan projects for the year. These included a candy sale, a bake sale, class rings, dances, car washes, collection of class dues, a pop bottle drive, and a coat hanger drive.

The class executive committee met on Tuesday mornings before school. All juniors were invited to attend. Students who participated in class activities were given points. A special pin was awarded at the end of the year to everyone who reached a certain total of points.

Class of 1968

Entering Mansfield Senior High in the fall of 1965 to begin their classwork here, the members of the Sophomore Class quickly adjusted to the fast-paced school life at MHS.

After the class elections in early December, the newly-elected officers promoted class spirit by inviting all sophomores to attend the class executive meetings held each Tuesday morning.

A bulletin board and a scrap book were started to keep a record of class events and accomplishments.

The sophomores began their program to earn money for graduation by sponsoring a dance on January 29. In March, the selling of miniature license plates, on which the school colors and name were printed, constituted the main project for the year.

The Sophomore Class Prom, held Saturday, May 14, brought to an end an interesting and successful year for the class of 1968.

MRS. NELLIE GATES

Forty-six years of teaching in Mansfield City Public Schools is Mrs. Nellie Gates' contribution to education. She has taught all grades except one. Mrs. Gates began her career in 1914 as a cadet teacher at Bowman School. She was on the faculty of John Simpson Junior High School the year it opened, but turned to home tutoring and visiting teaching when married women were not allowed to teach in schools. She returned to Simpson and then came to Mansfield Senior to spend the past thirteen years teaching English.

Mrs. Gates has never attended college in a regular winter session. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree by attending Saturday and evening classes, summer school, and taking extension and correspondence courses.

A grant from the Ford Foundation in the form of a fellowship at Rutgers helped her further her education.

Mrs. Gates has worked in denominational summer camps and has served as state secretary for the Young Women of the Lutheran Church.

Teachers' Service

MR. VIRL H. OBERLANDER

Mr. Virl H. Oberlander has been supervisor of vocational work at Mansfield Senior High for the past 36 years. Previous to this he had taught machine shop at Galion for four years and at Bucyrus for one year, making a total of 41 years as a teacher.

Mr. Oberlander attended Ohio State University, The Universities of Toledo and Akron, and Ashland College. He earned his Bachelor of Science Degree at Ohio State University. He also gained experience as a tool-and-die maker for about nine years before embarking on his teaching career.

Mr. Charles Vanderbilt has taught school 43 years. He began in 1923 by teaching in one-room school houses in Mansfield. He spent the next years at Madison and John Simpson, finally coming to Senior High in 1945. During his career he has taught almost every science course.

He gained his college education by going summers, winters and Saturdays to Kent State, Ohio University, and Ohio State and taking correspondence courses. He received his Bachelor of Science degree and master's degree from Ohio State University.

Among Mr. Vanderbilt's many extra interests are twenty years as elder and clerk of his church and twelve years on the Lexington school board. Mr. Vanderbilt initiated the now traditional science fair in the Mansfield city schools and has supervised this difficult undertaking for nine years.

The reserve cheerleaders were Lynn Bittinger, Debbie Hipp, Dorothy Ferguson, and Betty Ingram.

Tyger Gail Garnes added liveliness and appeal to the games.

Pep Assemblies ...

Pep assemblies always added needed enthusiasm to the sports activities of the year. Under the effective leadership of Andy Stern, a great boost of spirit was accomplished during the brief assemblies. This spirit prepared the fighting Tyger teams for the battle, no matter what the odds. Spirit jugs and pep bands generated pep. The assemblies were a vital facet of school life that encouraged the Tygers to win. Cheers led by cheerleaders, skits by Pep Club members, and spirit speeches by the coaches were other important parts of pep assemblies.

THE HYPHONERIAN

Co-editors-in-chief Dennis Walls and Mark Hoy.

By devoting their sixth period to consistent hard work, the Hyphonerian staff published ten issues of the school paper this year. Dennis Walls and Mark Hoy, co-editors-in-chief, furnished the necessary leadership for an outstanding paper. The special editors: JoAnn Amos, news and art; Andy Stern and Jan Sanders, sports; Betsy Schlegel and Scott Adams, features; Linda Brandenburg, clubs; Terry Zimmerman and Ron Frederick, columns, were responsible for keeping the school well informed. The typists, Nachiko Ide and Alexis Owings, were kept busy preparing the paper for press.

For the last two issues of the year, the junior reporters took over the editorial positions of the paper.

Co-editors of the columns staff, Ron Frederick and Terry Zimmerman, supervise Barb Brown and Judy Heichel.

The Governmental

Junior Parr, president of the Mansfield Senior High Student Council, provided much needed leadership to make the student government the best in many years. Assisting him in the production of the Student Handbook, were Jacob Zeiss, vice-president; Sherry Schoonmaker, secretary; and Andy Stern, treasurer. The handbook gave incoming sophomores the needed help to make the transition between junior and senior high school.

The most notable project of the Student Council was the packing of food and distribution of Christmas Baskets. This year the active group packed and delivered more than a hundred baskets to needy Mansfield residents.

Voice of M.H.S.

Organizing the running of all student elections, the Student Council president introduced the candidates. Other members helped tally the ballots. Further projects included the track assembly, election of track queen, twirp week, and the operation of the candy machines.

The chief money-making project was the candy machines, with some additional revenues gained from a dance after the Mansfield Relays. A strict budget often restricted the function of the body, but with careful spending the Student Council set an example for all organizations by accomplishing the most with the least money. The hardworking members gave many hours to make these projects a success.

Junior Parr contemplates during a Wednesday morning assembly.

Countrymen..."

Mock Government in Action

A mock government, set up annually at Ohio University, is the purpose of Buckeye Boys' State. The more ambitious ran for offices while the rest did the campaigning. Martin Campbell was elected State Party Chairman and State Health Director. Bruce Olson received a county position, Junior Parr acted as an attorney and Dave Schroeder was the head of Civil Defense.

Kathy Wiegand participated in Buckeye Girls' State held at Capital University.

Judy Wallace attended the Y-Teens National Convention at Washington D. C.

Junior Scientists of 66

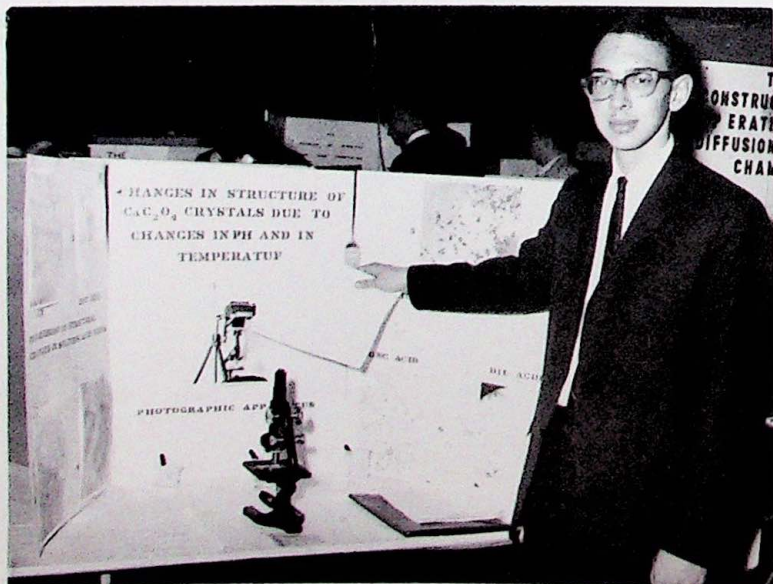

The proof of a successful Science Fair--a gym full of projects.

The Science Fair, a yearly occurrence, stimulates the research ability of young scientists. Starting early in January, many students organized their projects and began work. By mid-March most participants had put well over one hundred hours of work into their entries. On March 15, projects were judged by a team including a teacher and a person in industry or business. Projects were rated superior, excellent, good, or satisfactory. Anyone receiving a superior was eligible to attend the District Science Fair held in Ashland on April 2. Here the projects were again judged and rated. Students who obtained a superior rating in the district, were permitted to enter the state competition. The State Science Fair was held in Columbus on April 16.

Mr. Charles Vanderbilt, chairman of the Mansfield Senior High Science Fair for the last eight years, gave awards to the twenty-four superiors at the local level. This year, as always, all participants were given membership in the Ohio Academy of Science, a certificate, and a ribbon denoting their rating. All of those with superior projects attended the District Science Fair.

Voices At Their Best

Under the talented leadership of choirmaster Mr. A. L. Derr, the Mansfield Senior High Concert Choir performed at its best throughout the entire year.

The choir, made up of 107 members, gave its annual Christmas Concert December 14 for the public and again on December 17 for the school. During the concert various numbers were performed by the Mixed Ensemble and the Girl's Glee Club.

In February, the choir gave a performance for the students of John Simpson Junior High School.

Their major money-making project was sponsoring the Concordia Choir, which included students from various colleges. The Concordia Choir members spent the night as guest of the M. H. S. Choir. The concert was given on February 4.

The choir also took part in the annual Choir Contest held this year at Findlay, Ohio, April 22.

Varsity Marching Band

Musical Marchers

As a result of hard work and constant practice, the Varsity Marching Band turned out many fine half-time shows this year. Led by Mr. Hall and Mr. Leyerle, the band entertained at all Tiger football contests. Although plagued by bus problems, the band still kept the philosophy, "The show must go on."

Officers were John Skulski, president; Rick Berry, vice-president; Linda Smallstey, secretary; and Terry Ranck, treasurer. Under their skilled leadership the band sponsored many projects.

The band's biggest activity of the year was bringing the world-famous United States Marine Band to entertain and inspire Mansfield audiences. The profits went to purchase maroon blazers for the concert season. The annual Thanksgiving Dance was sponsored by the band.

The band's duty was to play for civic functions. During the summer they played for the ground-breaking ceremony for the Mansfield O. S. U. Branch. The Labor Day, Halloween, and Thanksgiving Parades were others of the band's performances.

The band has ninety-five members: forty-three brass players, forty-two woodwind players, and ten percussionists. Each player demonstrated his own ability by entering the Solos and Ensembles Contest.

Harmony on Stage

Providing excellent accompaniment for many school functions, the orchestra combined the talent of more than sixty young musicians. Steady practice during the third period prepared the group for its eight programs during the school year. A string ensemble was selected from the orchestra to play for many banquets and meetings. Stage Crew

Everyday, first period, a group of hard working young men met to prepare the stage for the various events of the year. The annual varsity varieties and the senior class play occupied most of the time spent on the stage. Mr. William Velo, new advisor of the stage crew, contributed much of his time to help with the activities of this group. One of the greatest accomplishments of the stage crew was preparing two sets and changing them four times for the class play.

The 1965 Tyger mentors: James Lutz, Robert Moschetti, Richard Hahn, Gary Prahst, Clarence Roessler, Robert O'Brien, and Donald Stowers.

Mansfield Senior High had a youthful look in its new football coaching staff. Heading the list of new coaches was Mr. Gary Prahst. Quite an athlete himself, Coach Prahst won All-Ohio honors in football and basketball, playing for Berea High School. Coach Prahst continued his education at Michigan University, where he was an outstanding end on the football squad. At the completion of his senior year, he was drafted second by the Cleveland Browns but chose coaching instead.

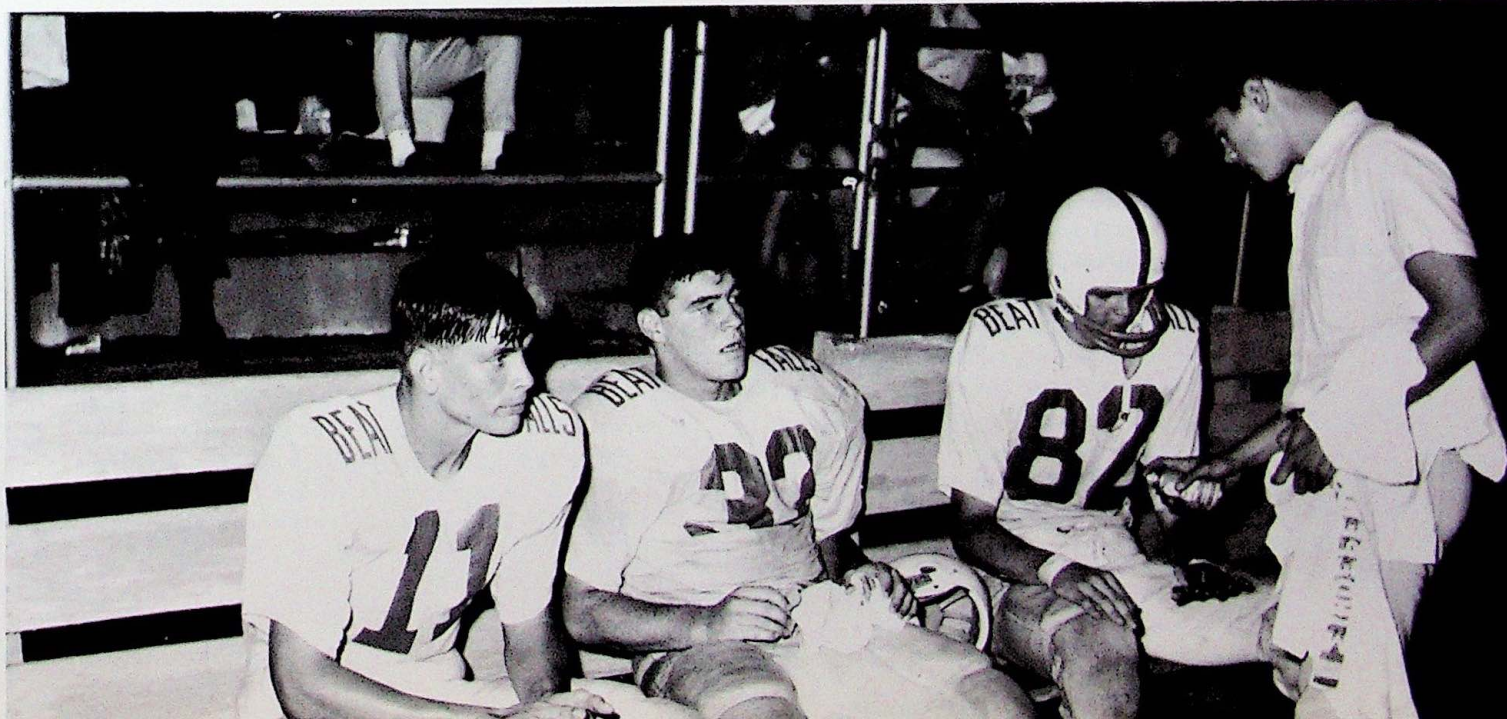

When asked how he would evaluate the season, he replied, "We have accomplished a great deal this season. We won five and lost five, which is the best Senior High season in four years. I don't feel, however, that five and five tells the entire story of our season." Coach Prahst felt that this year he worked with the greatest group of coaches in his career. He was also very proud of the leadership the seniors showed this season.

Assisting Coach Prahst were two veteran Senior High coaches: Mr. James Lutz, who trained guards and centers, and Mr. Robert O'Brien, who worked with tackles, and a new varsity staff member, Mr. Robert Moschetti, backfield coach.

New head coach of the reserves was Mr. Donald Stowers. Assisting him was returning end coach, Mr. Clarence Roessler, and new line coach, Mr. Richard Hahn.

Trainer Mike Lee tends to Dan Arnett while Harry Waldman and Clendon Parr watch the Tyger defense.

1965 TYGERS

The 1965 edition of the Mansfield football team, coached by Gary Prahst, was indeed one to remember. Playing one of the roughest schedules in Ohio, Mansfield racked up its best season in four years. The Tygers had an overall season record of 5-5. In the difficult Buckeye Conference, they gained fifth place with three wins and four losses.

The season opened at home against the Cuyahoga Black Tigers. Taking revenge for last year's defeat, the Tygers stunned them with a good defense, lots of fight, and a 33-yard field goal by tri-captain Dan Coe, for a final score of 11-0.

To prove that this was not luck but a reflection of the season yet to come, the rough, rambling, and ready Tygers rolled over Cleveland John Adams, 35-0. Senior halfback and tri-captain Bob Westerfield went on a scoring binge, as he traveled over the goal line three times. Completed screen passes from quarterback Harry Waldman accounted for two touchdowns.

The next week was the one which all Senior High fans had eagerly anticipated. It was when the tenth-ranked Tygers of Mansfield met the first-ranked Tygers of Massillon Washington. Fumbles hurt, as the Tygers lost the ball four times. Mansfield scored twice--once on a pass from Waldman to end Chris Alexander and another time on a plunge by tri-captain Junior Parr. The final was Massillon 38, Mansfield 12.

In their first Buckeye Conference game, the Tygers were again plagued by fumbles and lost the ball three of the first four times they had it. Fremont Ross won, 20-8. Mansfield's only score came on Bob Westerfield's 38-yard run.

Everyone became apprehensive before the Tygers met Lorain Admiral King, later to finish second in the Buckeye Conference. The defense did a tremendous job and held the Admirals scoreless. It seemed as if the score would be deadlocked at 0-0 until Chris Alexander intercepted a King pass and carried it to the Admiral 38-yard line. After a few plays that took the Tygers to the 30, Bob Westerfield broke through and drove all the way down to the 2 to set up the only score. A plunge by Junior Parr in the last minute of play wrapped it up, and the Tygers won, 7-0.

At last picking up momentum, Mansfield defeated Marion Harding in a home contest. The Tygers' defense unit allowed only 81 yards net gain and one touchdown, against Mansfield's 196 yards and two scores. The final score: Senior High 14, Marion Harding 6. Passing played a large part in the contest, as Harry Waldman recorded 100 per cent completion, 4-4, including one touchdown pass.

After starting to move in the Marion game, the fighting Tygers shifted into high gear, as they invaded the lair of the Lorain Steelmen. The team complied by rolling its way to 31 points. The defense held Lorain scoreless and allowed only 18 yards rushing. A grand total of 323 yards gained was the Tygers' best performance. Junior Parr certainly did his part, gaining 122 yards and scoring three times. Other scores came on runs by Butch Jefferson and Mike Swarn.

Returning home to a special Homecoming set in "Deep Purple," the Tygers seemed to be on their way to another easy victory. Mansfield scored early against the Elyria Pioneers, and Tom Osgar kicked the conversion. However, the Tygers could not hold on and finally lost, 18-7.

On Dads' Night, fumbles dampened Mansfield's spirits once more, as the Tygers lost the ball four times to Findlay. The Trojans never trailed and won out 11-6, although Tygers triumphed in the rushing department, 173-133.

Doomed to finish in the second division of the Buckeye Conference, the Tygers met Sandusky, rated second in the state. The Blue Streaks, held to 20 points in the first three quarters, exploded in the final frame for 28, to take the game, 48-0. Mansfield had a teeth-clenching chance to score on a blocked punt by Junior Parr, but missed the first down by inches and lost the ball on Sandusky's four-yard line.

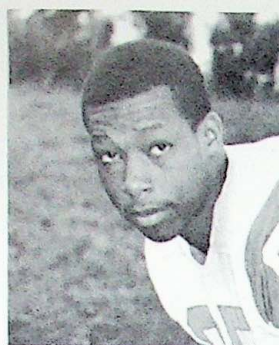

Senior High had many great players who have not been cited here, but without their efforts the Tygers could not have been the admirable team they were.

Congratulations to the Mansfield coaching staff and the Tiger team.

Royal Setting Surrounds Beauty

"Deep Purple" set the mood for this year's homecoming. Queen Carol Smucker, preceded by her court--Pam Jobes, Joyce Gant, Iris Mintz, and Sandi Cash--was escorted down the aisle to the strains of sweet music played by the orchestra.

The speaker, Mr. Jimmy Crumm, sportscaster from Columbus, stressed good sportsmanship in any game.

This year the speaker's podium was honored by Mr. Jimmy Crumm.

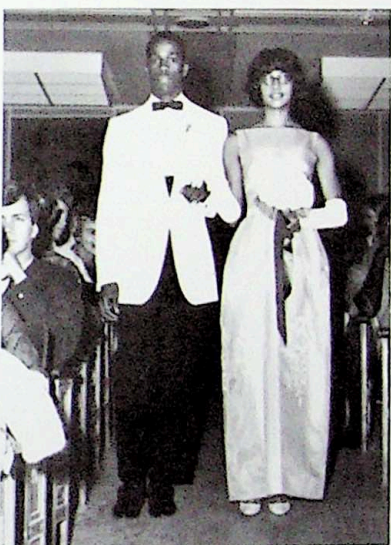

Everyone rises for our Queen Carol, escorted by Mr. Mike Smith.

Miss Joyce Gant, escorted by Mr. Nathaniel Mack, reflects the students' taste in beauty.

The lovely Miss Sandi Cash is proudly escorted by Mr. Walden Jefferson.

Miss Iris Mintz, escorted by Mr. Bob Boebel, glides elegantly to the stage.

Tygers Finish Strong

The Tygers started the season with a disastrous 75-54 loss to Fremont Ross but bounced back to defeat Lorain Admiral King, 80-76. Then came a three-game losing streak as the Tygers dropped decisions to Ashland, 59-58, Elyria, 69-59, and Marion Harding, 66-61. Mansfield then breezed by Lorain Senior with a 73-52 score but was defeated by Findlay and Sandusky by 80-64 and 76-69 scores, respectively. Next on the schedule the Tiger five upset the much taller and more experienced Dayton Roth team, 64-60. Avenging a defeat received earlier in the season at the hands of the Tygers, Lorain Admiral King defeated Mansfield in a 74-71 thriller. The Tygers then pulled one of the biggest upsets of the year by mowing down the Elyria Pioneers, the 1965-66 Buckeye Champs rated eighth in Ohio, on their own court, 67-64.

Having used up all their energy, however, the Mansfield hoopsters bowed to Marion Harding 58-49. Lorain Senior again proved to be weak opposition when the MHS cagers trounced them, 71-57. This victory set the stage for Mansfield's best performance of the season. The Findlay Blue Streaks came to town with hopes of becoming the state champions; however, the Trojans found the Mansfield quintet too much to handle as the fast-breaking Tygers ran them down, 88-64. The Tygers ended the season with losses to Cuyahoga Falls, 76-67, and Sandusky, 51-48.

Among the high points of the season was the tremendous improvement in senior forward Harry Waldman. Harry saw only spot action until he exploded for 26 points against Elyria. From then on, he was a permanent starter. Another outstanding player was Rick Mehl, named to the third-team Buckeye Conference team and given honorable mention on the All-District squad. Junior Tom Dinger proved to be the Tygers' real claim to fame during the season. Tom finished the season with 423 points for an average of 21.2, third in the Conference. He also hit an outstanding 82.3% from the foul line. Tom was chosen to the first Buckeye Conference team.

Tyger Harriers

The Tyger Cross-Country Team completed quite a successful season: a 5-3 record and third place in the Mansfield Invitational Relays, in the District Tournament, and in the Buckeye Conference.

Coach Harry Mehock and Coach William Flanegan agreed that Denny LaRue, a sophomore, was the Tygers' most valuable and consistent harrier. He recorded the fastest two-mile run of the season, running it in 10.57 seconds. Another outstanding runner was Captain Bruce Sandel, and Bob Bigelow was the most improved.

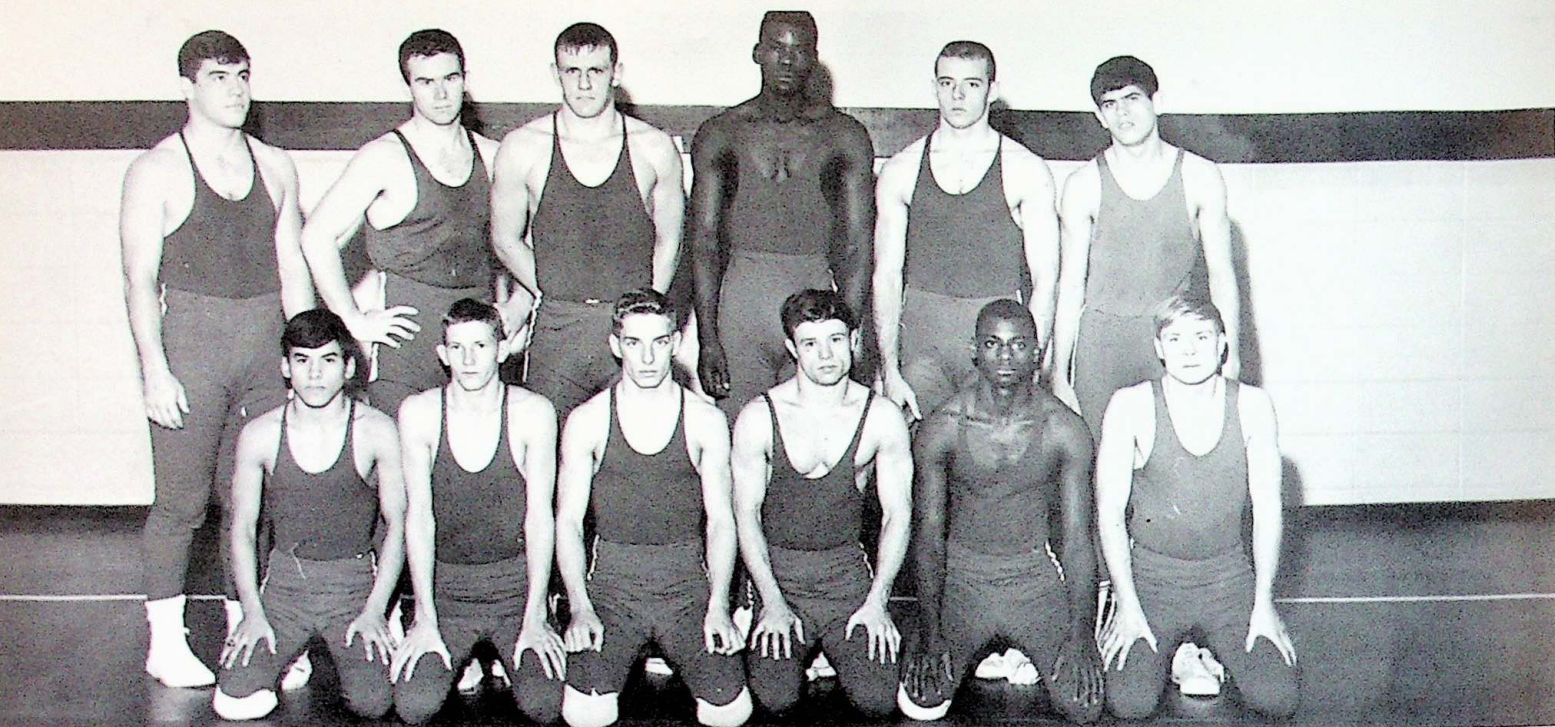

Coach Mehock said of the past season, "I think we had a successful season. We had some tough competition: Cleveland John Rhodes placed fourth in the state; Marion Harding was Buckeye Conference champs; and Worthington was district champion. We improved right along. Ashland expected to beat us easily, but we won."

Tyger Grapplers Fight Hard

As a team, the Mansfield grapplers had a rather disappointing season but had quite a few individual bright points.

The season started on a happy note with a 22-17 victory over Lorain Admiral King. M. H. S. was then defeated by Worthington, 35-6; Ashland, 23-20; Madison 25-11; and Sandusky, 40-3, respectively. The Tygers then dropped close contests to Madison, 25-12; Findlay 24-14; and Massillon 24-15. Later Fremont Ross defeated the Tygers, 35-11, and Clear Fork pinned the wrestling team 34-9.

Mansfield, however, had a Buckeye Conference Champion in Bob Bigelow. John Medina also made it to the state tournament in Columbus before bowing out.

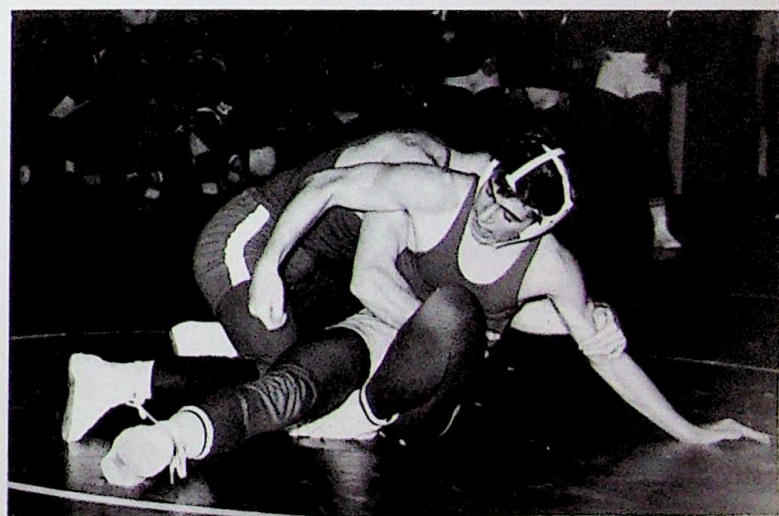

Tension and suspense were both part of the wrestling matches.

Of all the Mansfield Senior High winter sports teams this year, the swimmers recorded the best over-all season.

The Tiger tankers started the season by clawing past Wooster and Columbus Whetstone with scores of 59-36 and 58-37 respectively. Fremont Ross and Sandusky Perkins downed the Tygers in the next two meets by scores of 55-40 and 58-37. Senior High then defeated Grove City, 53-32, and Ontario, 63-32, before bowing to Wooster, 51-43, and Sandusky, 62-33. The Tygers drowned the next five opponents. The victories included Sandusky, 56-39; Colonel Crawford, 64-31; Ashland, 55-40; Ontario, 62-33; and Ashland again, 50-45. The swimmers then dropped their final duel meet, 56-39, to Findlay, thus finishing the season with a 9-5 record.

During the season, the Tiger tankmen took fourth in the Buckeye Conference meet and fifth in the Denison Relays.

ORGANIZA

TIONS

Jo Ann Roth, Dennis Walls, and Jeanette Peck discuss their college plans.

Chosen at the end of their junior year, when they were presented with an initiation key, the National Honor Society members elected Bruce Olson to preside during their senior year. Advised by Miss Mary Spiggle, the National Honor Society officers also included John Skulski, vice-president; Jane Beal, secretary; and Pat Arnett, treasurer.

The purpose of the Mansfield Chapter of National Honor Society was to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students of Mansfield Senior High.

American Field Service

In order to continue sponsoring foreign-exchange students, the Mansfield Senior High Chapter of the American Field Service employed several money-making projects this year. The members of this large organization sold red-and-white A. F. S. folders, decorative dried gourds, and ribbon candy. A school dance was another fund-raising activity.

President Mark Hoy, this year's host brother to our foreign-exchange student, Jose Oscategui, was assisted by Iris Mintz, vice-president; Aldean Richard, secretary; and Glenda Young, treasurer. Mr. Richard Beal was the advisor.

The policy of the American Field Service was to further world understanding and brotherhood by means of a person-to-person approach. Through talks and films by students who have visited overseas, club members were able to learn first hand the customs and traditions of lands formerly considered as "foreign."

Key Club

Dave Robinson and Dan Coe set up the school bulletin board.

Key Club members were selected on the basis of leadership, character, and scholarship. Association with this club helped participants develop initiative, a spirit of service to the school and community, and good citizenship at M. H. S.

Thanksgiving baskets were distributed. At Christmas, club members rang bells for the Salvation Army and gave a party for the retarded children. Checking Pep Club cards at football and basketball games and changing the school bulletin board every week were other responsibilities. Attending Kiwanis meetings afforded an opportunity to learn duties as future citizens of the community. At the end of the year, Key Club donated a $200 scholarship to the most deserving senior.

This year the Key Club officers included Greg Loiko, president; Harry Waldman, vice-president; Dave Robinson, secretary; and Dan Coe, treasurer.

Dr. Russell H. Barnes, Medical Education Director of Mansfield General Hospital, and Mrs. Norma Stanfield served as advisors for this year's Medical Science Club.

Medical Science Club functioned to acquaint students interested in medical careers with the various areas of healing and rehabilitation.

President Lonnie Guegold; Cathy Miller, vice-president; Mary Yockey, secretary; and Carl Dixon, treasurer, helped arrange meetings and programs. The Gayle Rife Auditorium, near Mansfield General Hospital, was the center of activity for the club.

Members saw demonstrations of the X-ray department and toured the chemistry lab and blood bank of General Hospital. In March, the future doctors, nurses, and technicians visited The Ohio State University Medical School.

Junior Rotarians

Tom Luby applauds a speaker.

Each Tuesday, several Junior Rotarians and Mr. Robert Glass went to the Mansfield Leland Hotel to lunch with the Rotary Club of Mansfield. Fifty Senior High boys, chosen by Mr. Glass on the basis of good citizenship, leadership, high scholastic average, and participation in school activities, enjoyed the programs planned by the Rotary Club.

The Rotary Club of Mansfield introduced community leaders to the Junior Rotarians and demonstrated the opportunities available through "Service above Self." Through this program, the Junior Rotarians gained an insight into the international understanding and friendly relationships necessary for a progressive community.

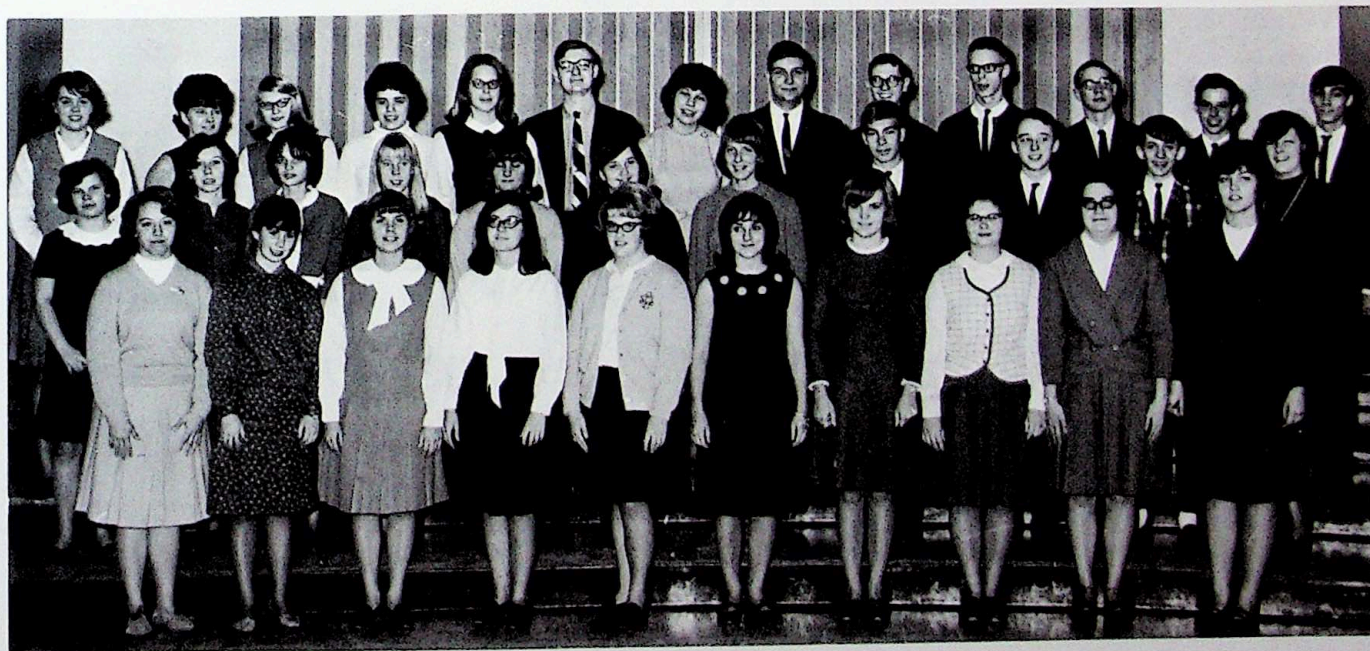

The College Club, directed by Mrs. Virginia Imhoff, aided many college-bound students. Hints about college life and discussions of future educational plans helped members become acquainted with higher education. The program topics included entrance requirements, financial aid, choosing a school, and adapting to a college environment. Students from Ohio colleges and universities discussed common college problems at a tea held in December.

The programs were planned by the Executive Committee, which included Carl Dixon, Richard Moore, Gary Burns, Ron Frederick, Sherry Schoonmaker, Mary Yockey, Diane Heffner, Lotebel Beaver, and Chris Hoy.

Assisting the Richland County Chapter of the Red Cross and serving the school and community, the Junior Red Cross of M. H. S. fulfilled its function as a goodwill organization.

President Joy Geib; Tim Park, vice-president; Betty Roberts, secretary; and Darla Detrow, treasurer; helped advisors Mrs. Helen Perrill and Miss Mabel Chipps plan the club's service projects. Selling Christmas candles was the major fund-raising activity.

The Junior Red Cross prepared Friendship Kits for South Vietnamese children, donated fruit and delivered Thanksgiving baskets to the County Home, and assisted the Richland County Bloodmobile.

Tim Park organizes a Red Cross display.

The president of the M. H. S. pep promoters and spirit boosters was Andy Stern. He was assisted by Jon Bletz, vice-president; Cathy Heiser, secretary; and Tom Luby, treasurer. This year, Pep Club organized all pep assemblies, sold candy, shakers, miniature spirit jugs, and victory ribbons. Sponsoring pep buses and two school dances and staging a bonfire at Arlin Field before the Mansfield-Massillon game were others of the varied Pep Club activities. The money raised through these projects helped purchase new blazers for Tyger team members.

Mrs. Laura Evilsizor and Miss Rebecca Hamrick directed the Pep Club; members of the Senior Executive Committee were Linda Brandenburg, Juli Konves, and Kathy Wiegand. The Junior Executive Committee included Debbie Lewis, Iris Mintz, and Dave McGinty.

Girls' Athletic Association

This year marked the reactivation of Senior High's Girls' Athletic Association. The officers included Chris Herrick, president; Marilyn Garber, vice-president; Debbie Hardy, secretary; and Wanda Jones, treasurer.

G. A. A. planned after-school athletic activities in the gym, bowling, swimming, and a picnic in the spring. The senior representative was Connie Williams, with Debbie Heffner as the junior and Dorothy Ferguson as the sophomore representative. The advisors were Mrs. Laura Evilsizor and Miss Rebecca Hamrick.

The purpose of G. A. A. was to create honest rivalry, develop courteous behavior, and help the members become good losers as well as graceful winners in athletic participation.

Science Club

President Martin Campbell stated, "The purpose of Science Club is to promote an interest in science among all M. H. S. students."

For the third consecutive year, Mr. Ralph Ridenhour appeared and demonstrated hypnotism. Other speakers and programs furnished an interesting year of scientific discovery. The group raised money to visit Battelle Institute in Columbus, Ohio.

Open to all students attracted by the scientific field, Science Club was advised by Mr. Charles Marchant. Vice-President Jeff Gerberick, Secretary Juli Konves, Treasurer Kathy Wiegand, and Librarian Diane Hannewald completed the slate of officers.

German Club

This year Mr. Robert Coppersmith, advisor of the German Club, was assisted by Richard Moore, president; Stacia Hinz, vice-president; Elenore Wilhelm, secretary; and Jenny Rudolf, treasurer.

The purpose of the German Club of M. H. S. was to promote world understanding through the comparative study of the German language, customs, and history. The members of the organization broadened their study of the foreign language through talks by speakers and slide programs showing European and particularly German points of interest. Recreation was in the form of a Halloween party.

Spanish Club

Jose Oscategui, Peruvian foreign-exchange student at Senior High, was a qualified source of information for Spanish Club members. He helped fulfill the purpose of the Spanish Club: to familiarize Spanish students with the customs, life, art, and culture of Spanish-speaking countries of the world. Meetings were also a convenient time to practice speaking the language.

Planning activities for the organization were President John Bechtel, Vice-President Jane Beal, Secretary Cindy Smith, and Treasurer Ron Hamilton. Miss Mary Spiggle served as the club's advisor.

Spanish Club members viewed films about Spain, read Spanish plays, and participated in a discussion with other area foreign-exchange students.

Latin Club

President Debbie Heffner stated, "The purpose of Latin Club is to promote a better understanding and appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of ancient Greece and Rome and to recognize the debt of our own culture to that of classical antiquity." With the guidance of Miss Virginia Howard, the club centered all its activities around this idea.

The club presented a Jo Saturnalia, or Christmas, program. The annual banquet, a lavish Roman dinner served by freshmen slaves, was held in the spring. Speakers and films rounded out the year's pleasant study. Governing Latin Club were Debbie Heffner, president; Janet Roy, vice-president; Diane Heffner, secretary; and Bruce Wallace, treasurer.

French Club

The French Club promoted extra-curricular study of French culture, civilization, and language. This year the new French teacher, Mrs. Renee Linkhorn, advised the club. President Charles Brown, Vice-President Geri Dent, Secretary Linda Higby, and Treasurer Chris Sims directed activities of the club.

A banquet featuring traditional French food transformed Kingwood's Assembly Room into a French cabaret. Seeing French plays presented in the area by colleges and professional groups was a major project. Many different guests, speaking about French culture and sightseeing trips in France, widened French students' view of the language and the country they studied. Members wrote to pen pals and spoke French at every meeting to gain greater fluency.

Varsity "M" Club

One of the most active service organizations at Mansfield Senior High this year was the Varsity "M" Club, advised by Coach James Burkett. Status as a varsity letterman was a requirement for admission to this club. Led by Junior Parr, president; Dan Coe, vice-president; Harry Waldman, secretary; John Allen, treasurer; and Ron Ruckman, sergeant-at-arms, Varsity "M" Club promoted and maintained high standards of athletics in the school and community.

The year's activities included financing the Winter Sports Banquet and re-vamping the Tiger Hall of Fame. To accomplish this new look Varsity "M" members cleaned the trophy cases and posted new athletic records.

The Future Teachers Association of Mansfield Senior High was organized this year by Jo Ellen Hill, president; Terry Zimmerman, vice-president; Jeanne Hout, secretary; and Jane Beal, treasurer. Mrs. Nellie Gates and Miss Virginia Howard were the club's advisors.

Organized for students considering a career in the field of education, Future Teachers acquainted the members with the different aspects of education and of teaching itself.

As well as various monthly programs, annual projects such as visiting public schools, ushering at the Senior High Science Fair, and holding a tea completed the year's activities.

Class time provided needed training.

Distributive Education was a program of instruction in merchandising, marketing, and management. D. E. Seniors were enrolled in a regular high school program in the morning and worked in the afternoon at least fifteen hours a week. Salesmanship and general principles of business and marketing were discussed and demonstrated in class for application in wholesale, retail, or service jobs. Training in the operation of the cash register and adding machine and filling out business forms occupied class time.

The DECA Club was a national organization for D. E. students. A banquet held jointly with employers and financed by the class showed students' appreciation of this cooperative program. Mr. John J. Thoms coordinated Distributive Education.

Cooperative Office Education Club

The Cooperative Office Education Club was limited in membership to the students in the Cooperative Office Education class. The students, senior boys and girls, attended classes in the morning and were employed in the afternoon by local offices. The program was a cooperative effort by business and the school to provide practical experience in the use of the knowledge and skills learned in the classroom.

Meetings of the club were held as needed during class time or before school and were part of the learning process of the program. In May each year the members planned a banquet with employers or supervisors as their guests.

President David O'Brian, Vice-President Charlene Patterson, Secretary Carolyn Beach, and Treasurer Andrea Owens headed the club. The advisor was Mr. Woodrow Williams.

Assistance from Sandy Sigler helps Charlene Patterson before leaving for work.

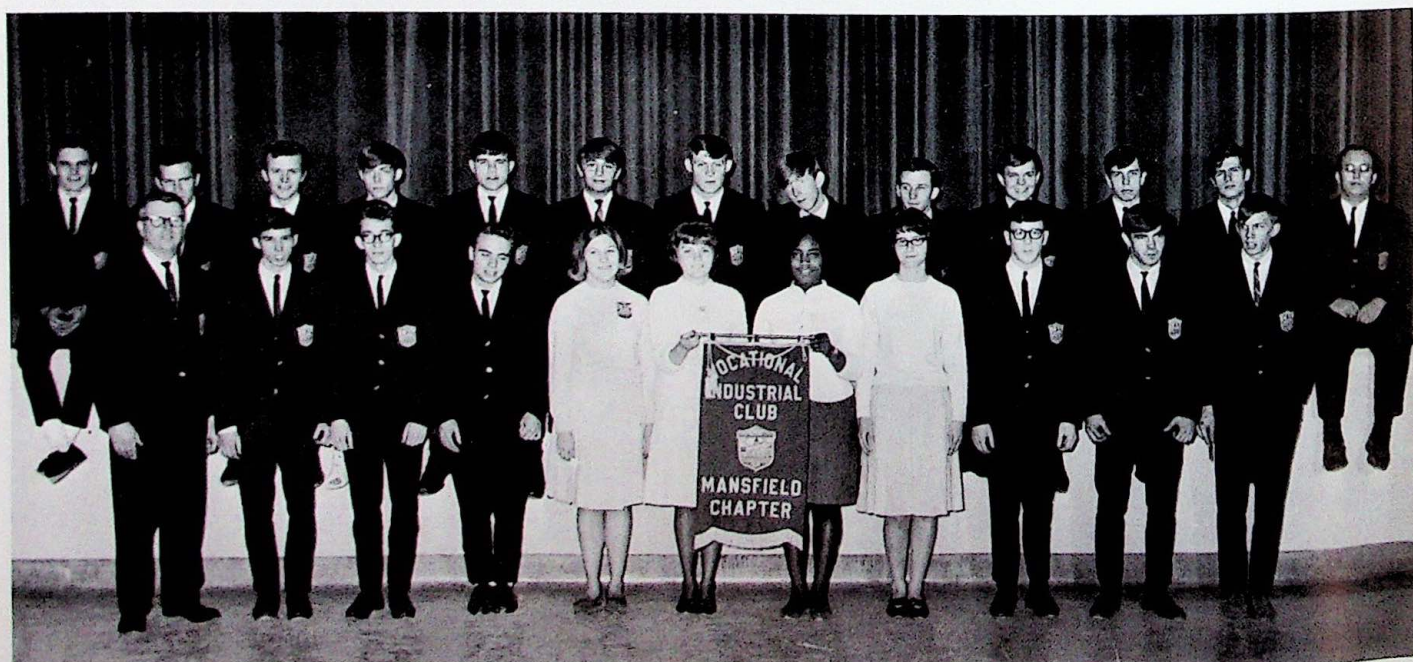

Club members concentrated on the plans for the trip to the D. C. T. Convention in Columbus.

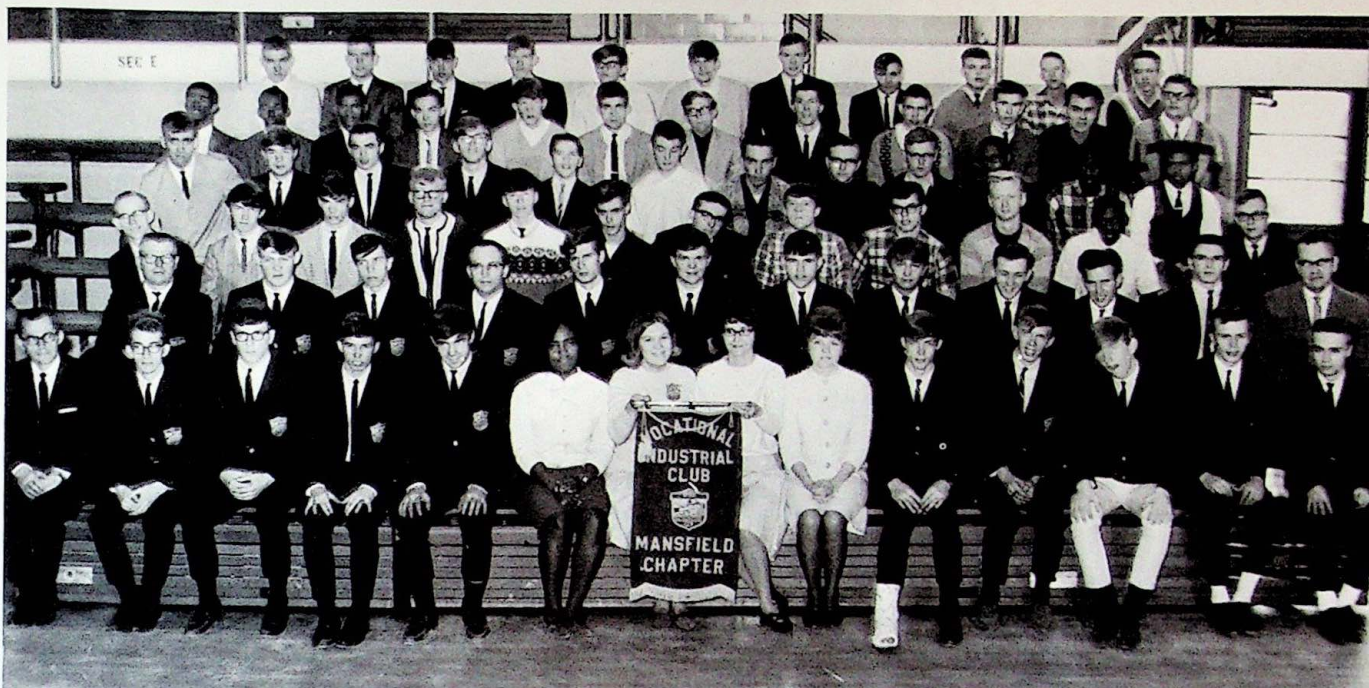

The Diversified Cooperative Training Club promoted high standards of workmanship and scholarship among students enrolled in the D. C. T. program. D. C. T. Seniors spent half the day taking required courses and studies related to their field. The remainder of the day students received on-the-job-training.

The club members attended a fall and spring D. C. T. Convention in Columbus, Ohio, and sponsored several social events. A Christmas party and a Christmas basket distribution was organized by President Dave Dasher, Vice-president Peter Bookman, Secretary Debbie Adkins, Treasurer Larry Caudill, and Sergeant-at-arms Bill DePue. Mr. Elwood Finley supervised the D. C. T. Club activities.

Vocational Industrial Club

Vocational Industrial Club was open only to students enrolled in the vocational course at M. H. S. The purpose of this club was to provide the members with opportunities for the development of leadership in civic, social, and industrial pursuits.

The club, advised by Mr. C. L. Smith and Mr. Nickolas Miu, included only members of the D. C. T. program, which Mr. Elwood Finley directed. The Vocational Industrial Club sponsored a dance after a basketball game, participated in a field trip in the spring, and held a Christmas Party for the members.

This year the officers of the Vocational Industrial Club included Dave Calland, president; Stanley Chance, vice-president; Robert Altstadt, secretary; and Marvin Burgard, treasurer.

Sue Cline and Don Mathews review the plans for their product.

Junior Achievers of North Central Ohio met one night a week to organize and manage companies in miniature of sponsoring firms. Meetings, held at the Junior Achievement Center, 174 South Mulberry Street, helped participants "learn by doing" in the world of business and economics.

In the fall, eighteen companies were initiated. Each member sold stock to raise capital and owned a share of his own. Five officers and a board of directors governed each company, with Mr. Jack Zorn as executive director. The members of each company produced and sold a product to gain profits and make their business a success. This year, there were thirteen new products and nine repeats. Wages were twenty cents an hour, with a small commission on sales. Salary and dividends were returned in May. Junior Achievement had its own bank, and each had its own accounts in a city bank. Through this procedure of producing and selling, achievers learned about problems of management, marketing, manufacturing, taxes, and accounting.

Junior Achievement

Achievers arrive for a 7:00 work session.

A brand new organization at M. H. S. this year was Debate Club. Debating helped members keep abreast of social and world problems and tested their skill at arguing and seeing a situation from all angles.

President Pat Arnett, Vice-President Martin Campbell, Secretary Renate Papenhausen, and Treasurer Richard Moore arranged and directed debates. Mr. John Gibson advised the club. Senior High's debaters met Clearfork for their first battle of words, and many other competitions provided verbal and mental exercise for members of this club.

Helping to inspire interest and enthusiasm in M. H. S. students were Bud Schmidt, president; Rick Collier, vice-president; Pat Miller, secretary; and Carla Golder, treasurer.

Three Home Economics teachers at Senior High, Miss Mabel Chipps, Mrs. Helen Perrill, and Mrs. Eilene Smith, provided extracurricular training for future homemakers. Improving personal, family, and community standards through practical accomplishments and awareness was the club's function.

Scrapbooks of puzzles, cartoons, and pictures which were compiled by the club members and donated to the hospital helped relieve tedious hours for sick children. Home Economics Club worked toward membership in the state and national Future Homemakers of America. Officers were Jane Beal, president; Mary Larson, vice-president; Wanda Jones, secretary; Marsha Fidler, treasurer; and Shirley Hammons, parliamentarian.

Camera Club

Tom Sealey and Gail Wyatt review the agenda.

A modern organization at Senior High was the Camera Club. To give students an opportunity to learn the mechanics of a camera and to develop, enlarge, and take effective photographs was the club's function.

Officers included President Tom Sealey, Vice-President Tim Park, Secretary Gail Wyatt, and Treasurer Terry Freese, along with the advisor Mr. William Wenning. Programs included speakers and field trips to industries concerned with photography. A notebook was also compiled by club members.

Radio buffs who belonged to the Radio Club at Senior High studied basic electronics and learned the International Morse Code in order to obtain an amateur license to operate short-wave equipment. A field trip to an amateur radio station provided practical knowledge of radio operation.

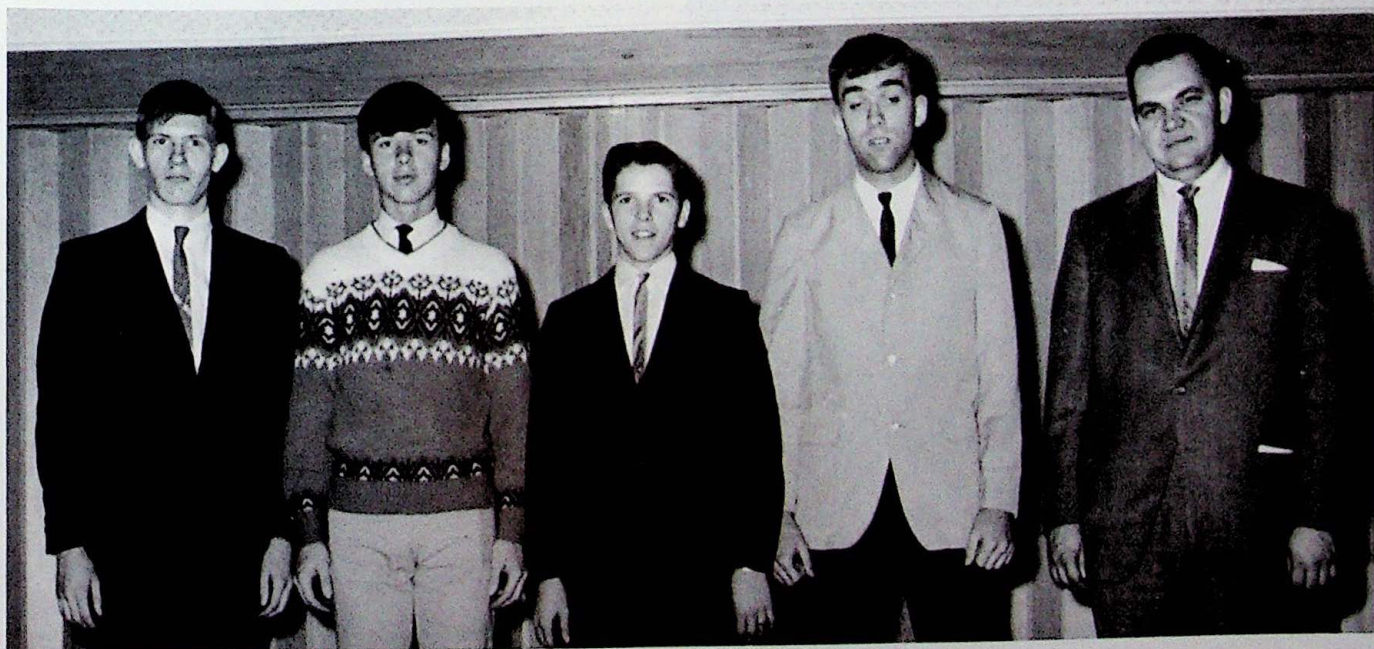

Funds acquired over a period of years went toward the purchase of new radio equipment.

Senior Y-Teens

President Ann Rainey and Paula Cooper confer before a business meeting.

Senior Y-Teens provided an opportunity for girls of Senior High and Malabar to serve the community, as well as functioning as a social organization. Weekly programs at the YWCA were aimed to prepare girls to fill roles as well-informed and intelligent women. The topics ranged from a panel discussion on human relations and job-hunting hints to a demonstration of wigs and slides of foreign countries.

Directing the club were Ann Rainey, president; Andi Boyle, vice-president; Carole Imler, recording secretary; Linda Brandenburg, corresponding secretary; Iris Harris, treasurer; Geri Dent, parliamentarian; and Sue Odell and Judy Wallace, Inter-Club Council representatives.

Senior Hi - Y

The Senior Hi-Y of M. H. S., advised by Mr. Tom Mattox, held meetings every week at the YMCA. The officers included Steve Hoff, president; Martin Campbell, vice-president; Mike Lee, secretary; and Dan Coe, treasurer.

The purpose of Hi-Y was to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character.

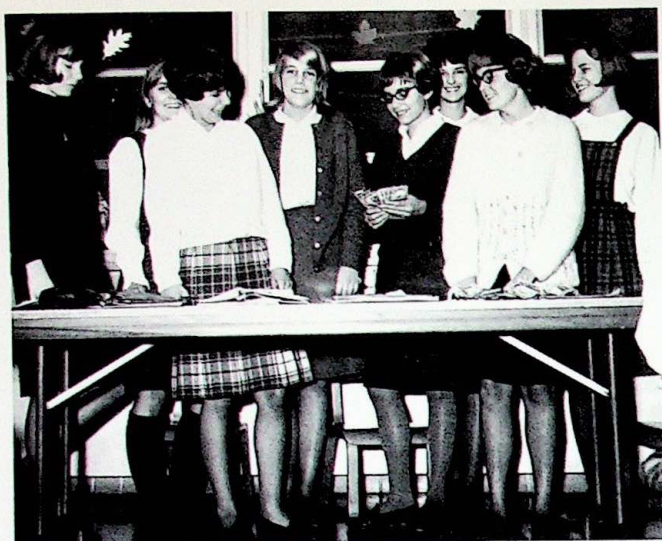

The boys participated in a candy sale, sponsored several dances, and planned other projects to raise money for their annual Easter vacation trip to an Eastern coast city. The Senior Hi-Y also staged a "dress-down" day here in October.

To build a fellowship of girls devoted to realizing high ideals of personal and social living as dictated by their Christian faith was the purpose of Junior Y-Teens. This active club performed skits at the Richland County Home in the fall. Relaxation came in the form of a slumber party. A bake sale helped raise money.

Leading the club were Cheri Davis, president; Nancy Smith, vice-president; Chris Sims, secretary; Debbie Lowrey, treasurer; and Susie Douglass, parliamentarian. Chaplain Laurie Woerth and I. C. C. Representatives Brigitte Steger, Elaine Fishburn, and Linda Higby rounded out the student officers. Miss Elsie Garlough and Miss Lucretia Parks were advisors.

Late to organize but becoming increasingly active, the club participated in the local Hi-Y Civic Day and collected for a Salvation Army clothing drive. Money raised from a candy sale went for service projects and to the fund for the senior trip to New York City. Dress-Down Day, a popular Hi-Y tradition, was observed in school.

Sophomore Y-Teens

The Sophomore Y-Teens combined members from Mansfield Senior and Malabar. To form a fellowship of girls devoted to the task of realizing in life the ideals of personal and social living, as dictated by the Christian faith, was the objective.

Serving as officers were Sue Saprano, president; Kathy Perkins, vice-president; Carol Scott, secretary; Shelli Straton, treasurer; Vickie Anderson, parliamentarian; and Kerry Eicher and Kary Austin, Inter-Club Council representatives. Miss Rebecca Hamrick and Mrs. David Gross acted as the advisors.

The girls worked on money-making projects for their future senior trip and participated in YWCA and community projects.

The girls conduct another organized meeting!

 Row 2: Baehrens, Hittinger, Parr, Browarsky, Wright, Cashell, Smith, Bell.

Sophomore boys built their Hi-Y around the motto "Development through Experience." Like other Hi-Y's, the club desired to maintain and extend high standards of character in the school and community. Participation in the local Hi-Y Civic Day was one activity, and a dance and car wash were money-making projects.

Jeff Bell, president; Jim Konves, vice-president; Mike Murray, secretary; Denny LaRue, treasurer; and Jim Cashell, chaplain, guided this Y-affiliated group. The club's advisor was Mr. David Gross.

The boys guard their hard-earned money!

FINIS

As all good things come to an end, we, the editors of the 1966 Manhigan, stand together for the last time. We wish to express our thanks first of all to our advisor, Mrs. Elaine McClellan, who after having advised the Manhigan for three years, plans to devote more time to her duties as head of the English Department. We would like to acknowledge the junior members of the staff for their able assistance. Appreciation is also extended to Smucker Studios for their excellent photography.

We thank the M. H. S. student body and faculty, the nucleus from which our book evolved. We hope to have captured and recorded for you your many moods and personalities.
